

READY FOR THE FIGHT

The Democratic Forces Prepared to Meet the Enemy on Tuesday.

RINGING WORDS TO VOTERS.

City and County Chairmen Urge a Prompt Discharge of Duty.

WORK OF OUR SPEAKERS.

Five Meetings Held Here and Throughout the State Yesterday--The Election-Eve Rallies.

As far as the Democrats are concerned, all the details for the election, as well as for the State at large as for Richmond, have been arranged. It only remains to have the closing rallies throughout the Commonwealth Monday and Tuesday night, and bring out the vote of the party Tuesday.

Chairman Patterson yesterday issued the following address to the Democratic voters of the city:

HDRS. CITY DEM. COMMITTEE, RICHMOND, VA., November 4, 1893.

The Democratic Voters of the City of Richmond:

When the polls open on the morning of Tuesday, November 6th, that day will witness one of the most important moments in the history of the Old Dominion. We voted on November 8, 1892, at a national election.

Our people were then thoroughly aroused, and the grim spectre of negro domination and the force bill made them roll up the unprecedented majority of 650. Without the assistance of such patriots and renegades such domination is impossible, but they exist in our community as in all others.

These people, in company with idealists and demagogues, are making a vicious effort to get control of our State government. As a growing and prosperous community we cannot afford not to put our whole strength.

REPUBLICANISM IN DISGUISE.

There is no Republican ticket in the field by that name. The third party is nothing less than Republicanism in disguise. The leaders of that party know that they are in alliance with the enemies of the peace and prosperity of the State. Their greed for office is the beginning and end of their patriotism.

They have injected the silver and tariff questions into strictly State issues. They know very well that Virginia has no power to coin money nor modify the Federal tariff. Their whole object is to get control of the office.

We are living and what is known as the Underwood Constitution, which was adopted at the time Virginia went through what was called the "Third party" war. It was a Union of the old and new in newly-made graves, and a majority of the survivors of the war were disfranchised. Under that ill-made Constitution all the free of the old and new in newly-made graves, and a majority of the survivors of the war were disfranchised. Under that ill-made Constitution all the free of the old and new in newly-made graves, and a majority of the survivors of the war were disfranchised.

THE LEGISLATIVE PATRONAGE.

In no other State in the Union has the legislative body so much patronage at its disposal. The time has come when it is the same time can change every asylum board, and the boards of visitors of the University of Virginia, and the Virginia Military Institute, and in many ways make his influence felt on legislation.

Democrats can no more afford to ally themselves with the Third party than with the negroes and the demagogues. Hayti. "The great question before you is the control of the Legislature and the office of Governor."

Very respectfully,
S. S. P. PATTERSON, Chairman.

The County Democracy.

Chairman Mitchell, of the Henrico County Committee, has also issued an address. It reads:

To the Democrats of Henrico County:

The election will take place next Tuesday, the 6th of November, and it is the imperative duty of every Democrat to attend the polls and vote. As you know, you will be called to elect a Legislature, whose responsibility it will be to pass the laws which will have as many important acts to perform as any Democratic Legislature has since the war, and no person that loves his State can afford to neglect the duty of the polls or vote against the Democratic nominees. The general condition of the country in comparison with the past when controlled by the Republicans shows your incentive to make this small sacrifice.

There is a further danger that confronts us. There are some old friends whom we respect and esteem that have been led astray by the song of the demagogue, and who would blight the growth of the county by issuing false reports. They are not legitimately before us. It is enough to know that we are, in comparison, prosperous, and that such vital issues as the State debt, and the happy settlement of the integrity of the country would be sadly jeopardized should such a coalition succeed. You are urged, in conclusion, to persuade your neighbor and yourself to dedicate a part of your time that your nominees, Messrs. Sands, Lovenstein and Binford, and our gallant nominee for Governor, O'Ferrall, may be elected. So rally to the polls and do your duty next Tuesday morning.

J. C. MITCHELL,
Chairman Henrico Dem. Committee.

Judge Flournoy and the Actives.

There was a fine meeting of the Clay Ward Actives at Belvidere Hall last night. President Evans presided, and the chairman and Secretary P. H. C. Cabell was at his desk. Mr. Cabell made a few remarks at the opening of the meeting, in which he urged the importance of united and concerted action on the part of all good Democrats next Tuesday. There was a call for volunteers to work in the field of the party at the polls, and a good many members proffered their services which were accepted.

The feature of the meeting was a splendid speech by Hon. H. W. Flournoy, Secretary of the Commonwealth, who was introduced by President Sneed.

Judge Flournoy opened with a warning to all against apathy, calling attention to the fact that disinterestedness had caused the Democrats to lose the State once before. The time had come when all should be aroused and should go into the fight in earnest. He had heard men whom he had known since war and who had voted the Democratic ticket ever since that struggle declare that they were going to vote for these Populist nominees.

The leaders of the Third party were charging about making all sorts of accusations against the Democratic party on account of its silver views. The national platform of the Democratic party declared that the Sherman act should be repealed, and the speaker thanked God that this pledge had been redeemed by a Democratic Congress. This party had declared that the obnoxious Federal elections law should be repealed, and this had been made good by the House of Representatives of the United States.

A Ways and Means Committee of Congress was even now at work upon the tariff question with a view to reducing this taxation to a sum necessary to carry on the affairs of the government upon an economic basis. Soon these people will be relieved of a portion of this burden.

Judge Flournoy in concluding urged every member of the Clay Ward Actives to go out next Tuesday and work for the election of O'Ferrall, Kent, and Scott, and the Democratic nominees for the Legislature. Speaking and talking did some good, but work did more, and Judge Flournoy hoped that the members of the Clay Ward Actives would give their share of the support to be accorded the candidates of the Democratic party Tuesday.

MR. CRUMP'S SPEECH.

At the conclusion of Judge Flournoy's remarks the Chair introduced Mr. Brewster T. Crump, candidate for the House of Delegates, who made a forcible and interesting speech. He criticized in national terms the schemes resorted to by the Populists. It was not an agreeable thing for a Virginian to see the Democratic nominees wanted to be introduced to between an old broken-down politician from Colorado and a young fire-brand politician from Kansas. He said he thought that the Democratic party of Virginia would put their feet down upon the necks of these fellows in such a way as to cause them to know that the next time they would come here to teach Virginia politics they would be sent for. He did not believe that the Third party would make much of an impression in this city and hoped that on next Tuesday night he would be able to throw up his hat and shout that the Democrats had carried the city by 5,000 majority.

TAYLOR AND AUGUSTE.

After the appearance of Mr. Crump had subsided, Captain R. M. Taylor was called upon. He asked the club to excuse him from speaking, saying he would be on hand properly on Tuesday night.

There was an enthusiastic Democratic meeting at Whitlock's store, in Varina Township, yesterday afternoon. It was called to order by County-Committee member Dick Warriner, who introduced Captain W. J. Binford, the Democratic nominee for the House of Delegates. The Captain then commenced his speech by thanking those present for their steadfastness in his support in the last primary, having given him every vote cast at the precinct meeting.

He then presented a good advice, and made a splendid presentation of the issues of the canvass.

He then himself fully equipped with facts and figures, and his argument was convincing and at times eloquent.

He was followed by Mr. George D. Carter, who represented the city in the last Legislature. This gentleman presented the case in a splendid way. He paid tribute to Captain Binford and made a fine tribute to the city and its people, and to give him a large majority.

At 8 o'clock last night a large gathering of the citizens of Varina Township listened to the speech of the Captain. The speaker, Mr. Binford, made a fine speech, and the audience was very much interested in his remarks.

THE ST. ELMO SUICIDE

HE IS SUPPOSED TO HAVE BEEN A DRUMMER OUT OF FUNDS.

A Deck-Hand Seriously Crushed--Equipment of the New Engine-House--Opening Winter Hop at the Navy-Yard.

(Correspondence of the Dispatch.)

NORFOLK, VA., November 4.—The stranger who died, it is thought by opium poisoning, at the St. Elmo hotel was buried in Oak Grove cemetery. He was supposed to be a travelling man from New York and was broken when he reached Portsmouth.

Edward Cox, a deck-hand on the ferry, was seriously crushed last night by the breaking of a chain, and is attended by two doctors.

The new up-town engine-house for the fire department, just erected at a cost of over $2,000, on Queen street near Church, has been turned over to the city and will be equipped with one steamer, hose-carriages, six horses, etc. The building is handsome and a credit to the city.

PENSION CASES.

The criminal term of the United States Circuit court commences on Monday, and the pension fraud cases will come up, with much other business for the grand jury.

The opening hop of the series of winter entertainments at the navy yard took place this afternoon, and a large number of society people went over in the launches.

At St. Peter's Protestant Episcopal church to-morrow night Rev. J. L. Gravatt will deliver a sermon to Orinco Tribe of Red Men.

WORK RESUMED.

The property-holders not having completed the order of court in giving bond, etc., the work of constructing the electric railway has been resumed and is progressing rapidly.

The property destroyed by fire near Berkeley yesterday amounted to $3,000, and that in Brambleton last night to $1,800. Captain H. C. Canton (retired), United States Marine Corps, moves from Portsmouth to Charlotte, N. C., next week with his family to reside.

A FORMER EDITOR MARRIED.

Mr. Albert P. Page wedded to Miss Gertrude Green—Another Union. (Special telegram to the Dispatch.)

RADFORD, VA., November 4.—Mr. Alfred P. Page, of Boston, but formerly of Radford, and Miss Gertrude Green, daughter of Colonel James Green, were married at the Le Belle Hotel this morning.

Mr. W. H. Johnson, train dispatcher of Radford, and Miss Corinne Anderson, of Bluefield, were married in the Presbyterian church in Bluefield Thursday morning. A large party from Radford attended the ceremony.

French Conversation.

No one can realize with what ease and rapidly a colloquial knowledge of French may be acquired by Professor Etienne Lambert's unique system until they have witnessed the method operandi. It is the only one by which adults are made thoroughly familiar with all the irregular verbs and the use of leading idioms indispensable for a distinct grasp of the language.

One of the most remarkable human beings ever seen in Richmond in the North side of the River, between Seventh and Eighth. The little creature is being viewed by large crowds both day and night. She is not a freak, but the representative of a distinct race of little people. The girl was captured with two men of her race in 1878. Barnum made arrangements to have the three transported to this country, but the men died during the voyage. The girl has been exhibited before some of the most scientific men on the continent and has been characterized one of the curiosities of the age.
